

A large, stylized eagle logo is the central focus. The eagle's body and wings are filled with a dark red, textured material. The head is a solid dark red circle. The tail and the vertical stripes on the wings are a light cream color. The stripes are of varying widths and are arranged in a way that suggests feathers. The eagle is facing right.

VOLUME XXIII
PUBLISHED BY THE ANNUAL CLASS OF '53
BELL HIGH SCHOOL
BELL, CALIFORNIA

Hurry, step right up folks, and see the Big Show. The greatest show on earth is about to commence. The whole year will pass in review right before your very eyes.

See the hilarious SIDE SHOWS, the MENGARIE, the fearless ANIMAL TRAINERS, the robust STRONGMEN while enjoying your POPCORN 'N' PEANUTS.

See the whole school year sparkle and glitter before you; colorful memories with you as the top performers.

Hurry and see it all

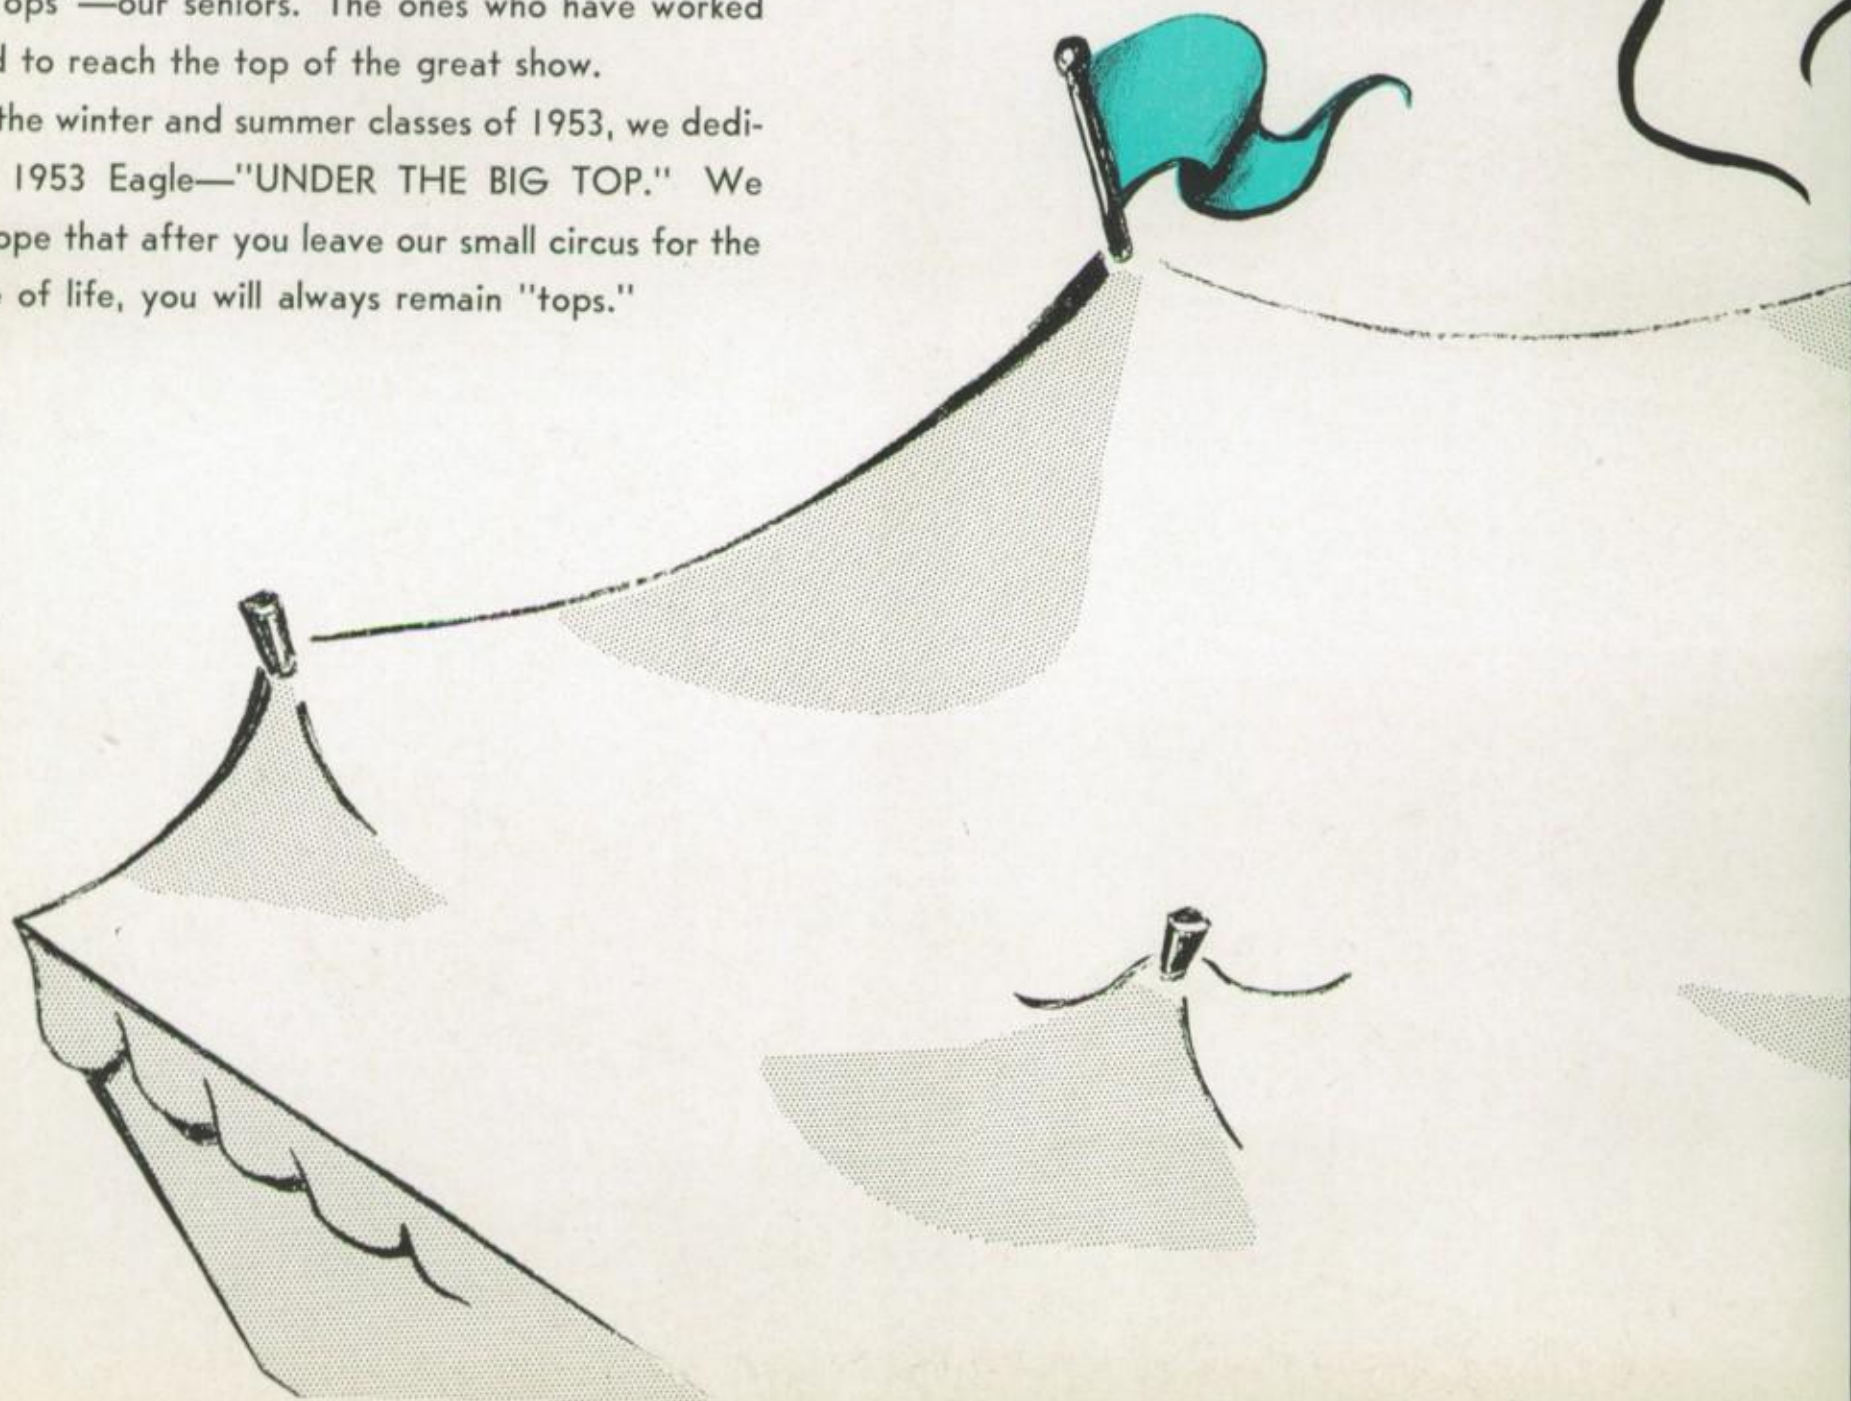

UNDER THE BIG TOP

Ladies and Gentlemen! We the 1953 Eagle staff are proud to present to you the most colorful, the most unusual, and the most colossal yearbook in the history of Bell! Your 1953 Eagle—"UNDER THE BIG TOP."

"UNDER THE BIG TOP" was chosen as the theme for your 1953 Eagle because it demonstrates how the fun and excitement of the circus compares to your high school days.

Under this great big top of Bell High School we find the "Animal Trainers"—our faculty; the ones who crack the whips. The classes are our great "Menagerie;" without them it would be impossible to carry on this giant show. "Popcorn n' Peanuts"—our activities; the assemblies, student body elections, and dances we swing through each year. Our "Strongmen"—the athletes who play for Bell in both form and sportsmanship. And last, but not least, "The Big Tops"—our seniors. The ones who have worked and strived to reach the top of the great show.

To you, the winter and summer classes of 1953, we dedicate your 1953 Eagle—"UNDER THE BIG TOP." We sincerely hope that after you leave our small circus for the bigger one of life, you will always remain "tops."

ADMINISTRATION

MR. VIRGIL FRAMPTON, PRINCIPAL: Born in Los Angeles, our ever-popular principal graduated from Polytechnic High School where he was active in football, baseball, and track. From Poly he enrolled at Santa Barbara State and later at the universities of U.C.L.A., California, and U.S.C.

After teaching at various high schools, he came to Bell in 1939 and has been here ever since.

Always interested in sports, Mr. Frampton has a large trophy in his office which he received for being president of the Southern California Football Association.

Jovial Mr. Frampton has now been with us for 14 years, and speaking for the entire student body, we hope that "Turk" will remain another 14 years.

MISS BARBARA SMITH, GIRLS' VICE PRINCIPAL: The popular girls' V.P. was born in Ruthersford, New Jersey, and went to a small high school in Vermont where she was the editor of the school paper and treasurer of her class.

She taught at U.C.L.A., where she attended after high school, and at Poly, and was girls' vice principal at South Gate for six weeks before coming to Bell in 1951.

MR. WILLIAM RUESS, BOYS' VICE PRINCIPAL: Bell's youthful boys' vice principal is a native of Los Angeles and attended Fairfax High School. After graduation he attended U.C.L.A. and was active in football and other sports.

A navy man, Mr. Ruess taught at Jordan and University before succeeding Mr. Lloyd Pack as vice principal here at Bell.

MR. STANLEY ROBSON, COUNSELOR: Mr. Robson is a very important figure around the Bell campus. For numerous semesters he has aided both teachers and students in their counseling difficulties.

MR. JOHN STEELE, REGISTRAR: Almost every student in Bell has had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Steele, who has the difficult task of checking the attendance.

FACULTY

Under the capable leadership of Mr. Charles Garven, president of the faculty, and his fellow officers, Mrs. Lotene Morgan, vice president; Miss Ethel Robinson, secretary; and Mr. Bob Bosanko, treasurer; the faculty had a very successful year.

The faculty had various social activities including a picnic at South Gate Park and a Christmas party at which Mr. Collis Jordan was old Saint Nick. Besides these socials, many serious activities were included at faculty meetings.

The Big Moment

"Rounding out" their senior year, the WSS seniors tattle down their bacon and eggs at the "Senior Breakfast."

SENIOR PROM AND BREAKFAST

STARDUST AND SPANGLES

"Round-up Time" was the theme chosen by the mighty W'53 class for the breakfast they presented to the "Red-hot" Senior B's. Pardner Morris Adams and bartender Gilbert Dyrr acted as M.C.'s for the Senior A's and B's, respectively. The Senior B's came up with bright red sweaters to outshine the Senior A's on this old western day.

"Look at all the fishes on the wall." "I wonder if that fish net is real? It sure smells like it." These and other remarks were heard by both senior classes at the prom, "Undersea Fantasies" presented by the latter half of the senior class. Bill Jacoby furnished the dreamy music for this outstanding prom which was held at the Downey Women's Club.

Highlighting the Senior Breakfast, "Time for T.V." were the fascinating T.V. hats with the protruding aerals made by Senior A's Ray Mannka, Donna Reece, Mary Glanz, Arlene Pepper, and Marie Weiss.

Many outstanding T.V. personalities appeared in the gigantic T.V. show put on by both senior classes.

TOP PERFORMERS

Honoring the title of "Ephebian" for the Winter 1953 semester were Darlene Hall and Nancy Ortgier. "Ephebians" are chosen on the basis of citizenship, scholastic ability and outstanding contributions to the school.

Selected to give commencement speeches were: Duane Cole, whose speech was on "Bill of Rights and the Changing World;" Diana Cirri, with the topic, "Give Me Liberty, or Give Me Death;" Darlene Hall, who spoke on "A Reason to Live and a Reason to Die;" and Bob Schleiden, who discussed "MacArthur's Homecoming Address."

Darlene Hall was the only Sealbearer for the W'53 semester, which means five semesters of Scholarship. For being honored as Sealbearer, she was awarded the C.S.F. pin.

WINTER 1953 SEALBEARER: Darlene Hall.

THE BIG WHEELS

Although the smallest senior class Bell High has had in many a year, the mighty W'53 class presented one of the best proms ever staged at Bell. With the theme "Blossom Time" they decorated the tennis courts to look just like a Southern plantation with blossoms appearing everywhere. Duane Cole, president; Jan Cline, vice president; Nancy Ortgier, secretary; and Shirley Klingsiek, treasurer were the Senior B officers who made this prom such an outstanding success.

Rounding out their senior year the Senior A's sponsored the Senior Breakfast, "Round-Up Time." Nancy Ortgier, president; Patti Connell, vice president; Shirley Lekven, secretary; and Gloria Standley, treasurer were the Senior A officers who were responsible for this "rip roarin'" affair. As the breakfast came to an end the Senior A's said, "So long, pardner" to all their friends and good times they had at Bell.

CIRCUS HEADLINERS

Working hard to make theirs the best prom ever, the S'53 class presented the senior prom, "Undersea Fantasies." Tropical fish and real fish nets were seen all over the Downey Women's Club which was decorated just like an under-water paradise. Gilbert Dyrr, president; Bill Clabaugh, vice president; Pat McNabb, secretary; and Arlene Pepper, treasurer, were the Senior B officers responsible for this successful affair.

Climaxing their last semester at Bell High, the S'53 class sponsored the Senior Breakfast, "Time for T.V."

Ray Mannka, president; Joanne Watson, vice president; Mary Glanz, secretary; and Donna Reece, treasurer, were the S'53 Senior A officers who put this breakfast over the top with a bang.

TOP TALENT

Chosen to represent the senior class of 1953 in the Ephebian society were Carl Becker, Gilbert Dyrr, Bob Falk, Diane Moon, and George Sattler. These students were chosen because of their leadership, scholarship, and citizenship.

Six students were honored by being chosen Sealbearers for the S'53 class. These students received this honor by being in scholarship four semesters, one in their senior year. A lot of time, hard work and late hours went into the receiving of this honor. Pat McNabb, Joanne Watson, Diane Moon, Carl Becker, Gilbert Dyrr, and Adolph DeBlasio were the deserving students.

The famous Bell Sisters Tinkle and Dinkle, are rowing along the shores of "Bermude."

"Wilbur" and "Boots" agree that "Undersea Fantasies" was one of the best proms ever had at Bell.

Posing for the cameraman are the mighty Senior A's, proudly showing off their new T.V. hats.

Although outnumbered three to one, the Senior A's proudly show off their new beige sweaters.

Famished Senior B's gobble down gobbles and crackers in hopes that they can get back for seconds before the food is all gone.

Strong and mighty Senior A's pulled with all their might but the Senior B's had Jerry Gloeckler on the end of their rope and he saved the day for upper classmen.

SHOOTING GALLERY

"Gee, wasn't that party swell!"

"That field day was really something!"

"What good food! The picnic was sure fun!"

Such remarks and many others were heard from the seniors this past year.

The traditional prom and breakfast were the outstanding events of the year, but many activities, all of which were loads of fun, were enjoyed by these mighty seniors.

Sweater Day was highlighted when the Senior Bees donned their brilliant red sweaters.

A combined Senior Aye and Bee party was enjoyed by every vigorous senior. Volleyball, ping-pong, and dancing were featured at this event.

Tired, but happy seniors ended their very busy year with the annual senior picnic.

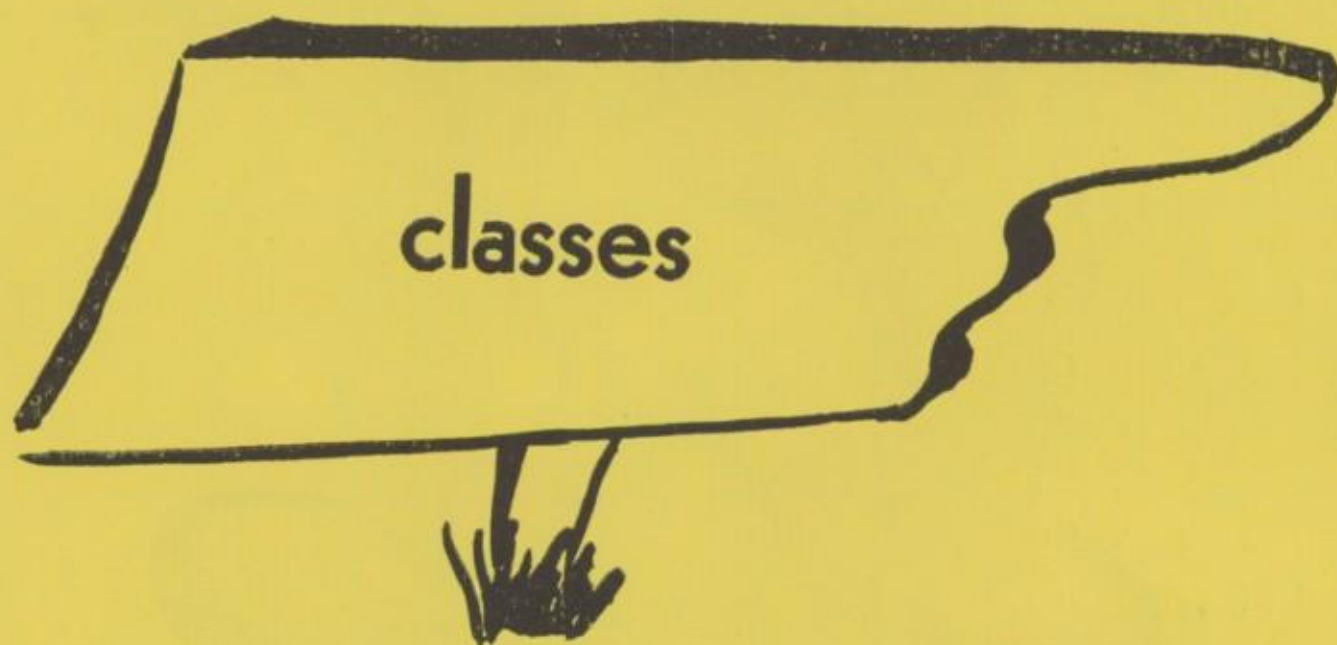

One of the highlights of the Senior Breakfast, "Round-up Time" was the Senior A quartette featuring Morris Adams, Ron Anderson, Don Anderson, and Jan Cline.

Showing off their "red-hot" senior sweaters, the Senior B girls do the "Bunny hop" in the west quad with the Senior B boys looking on.

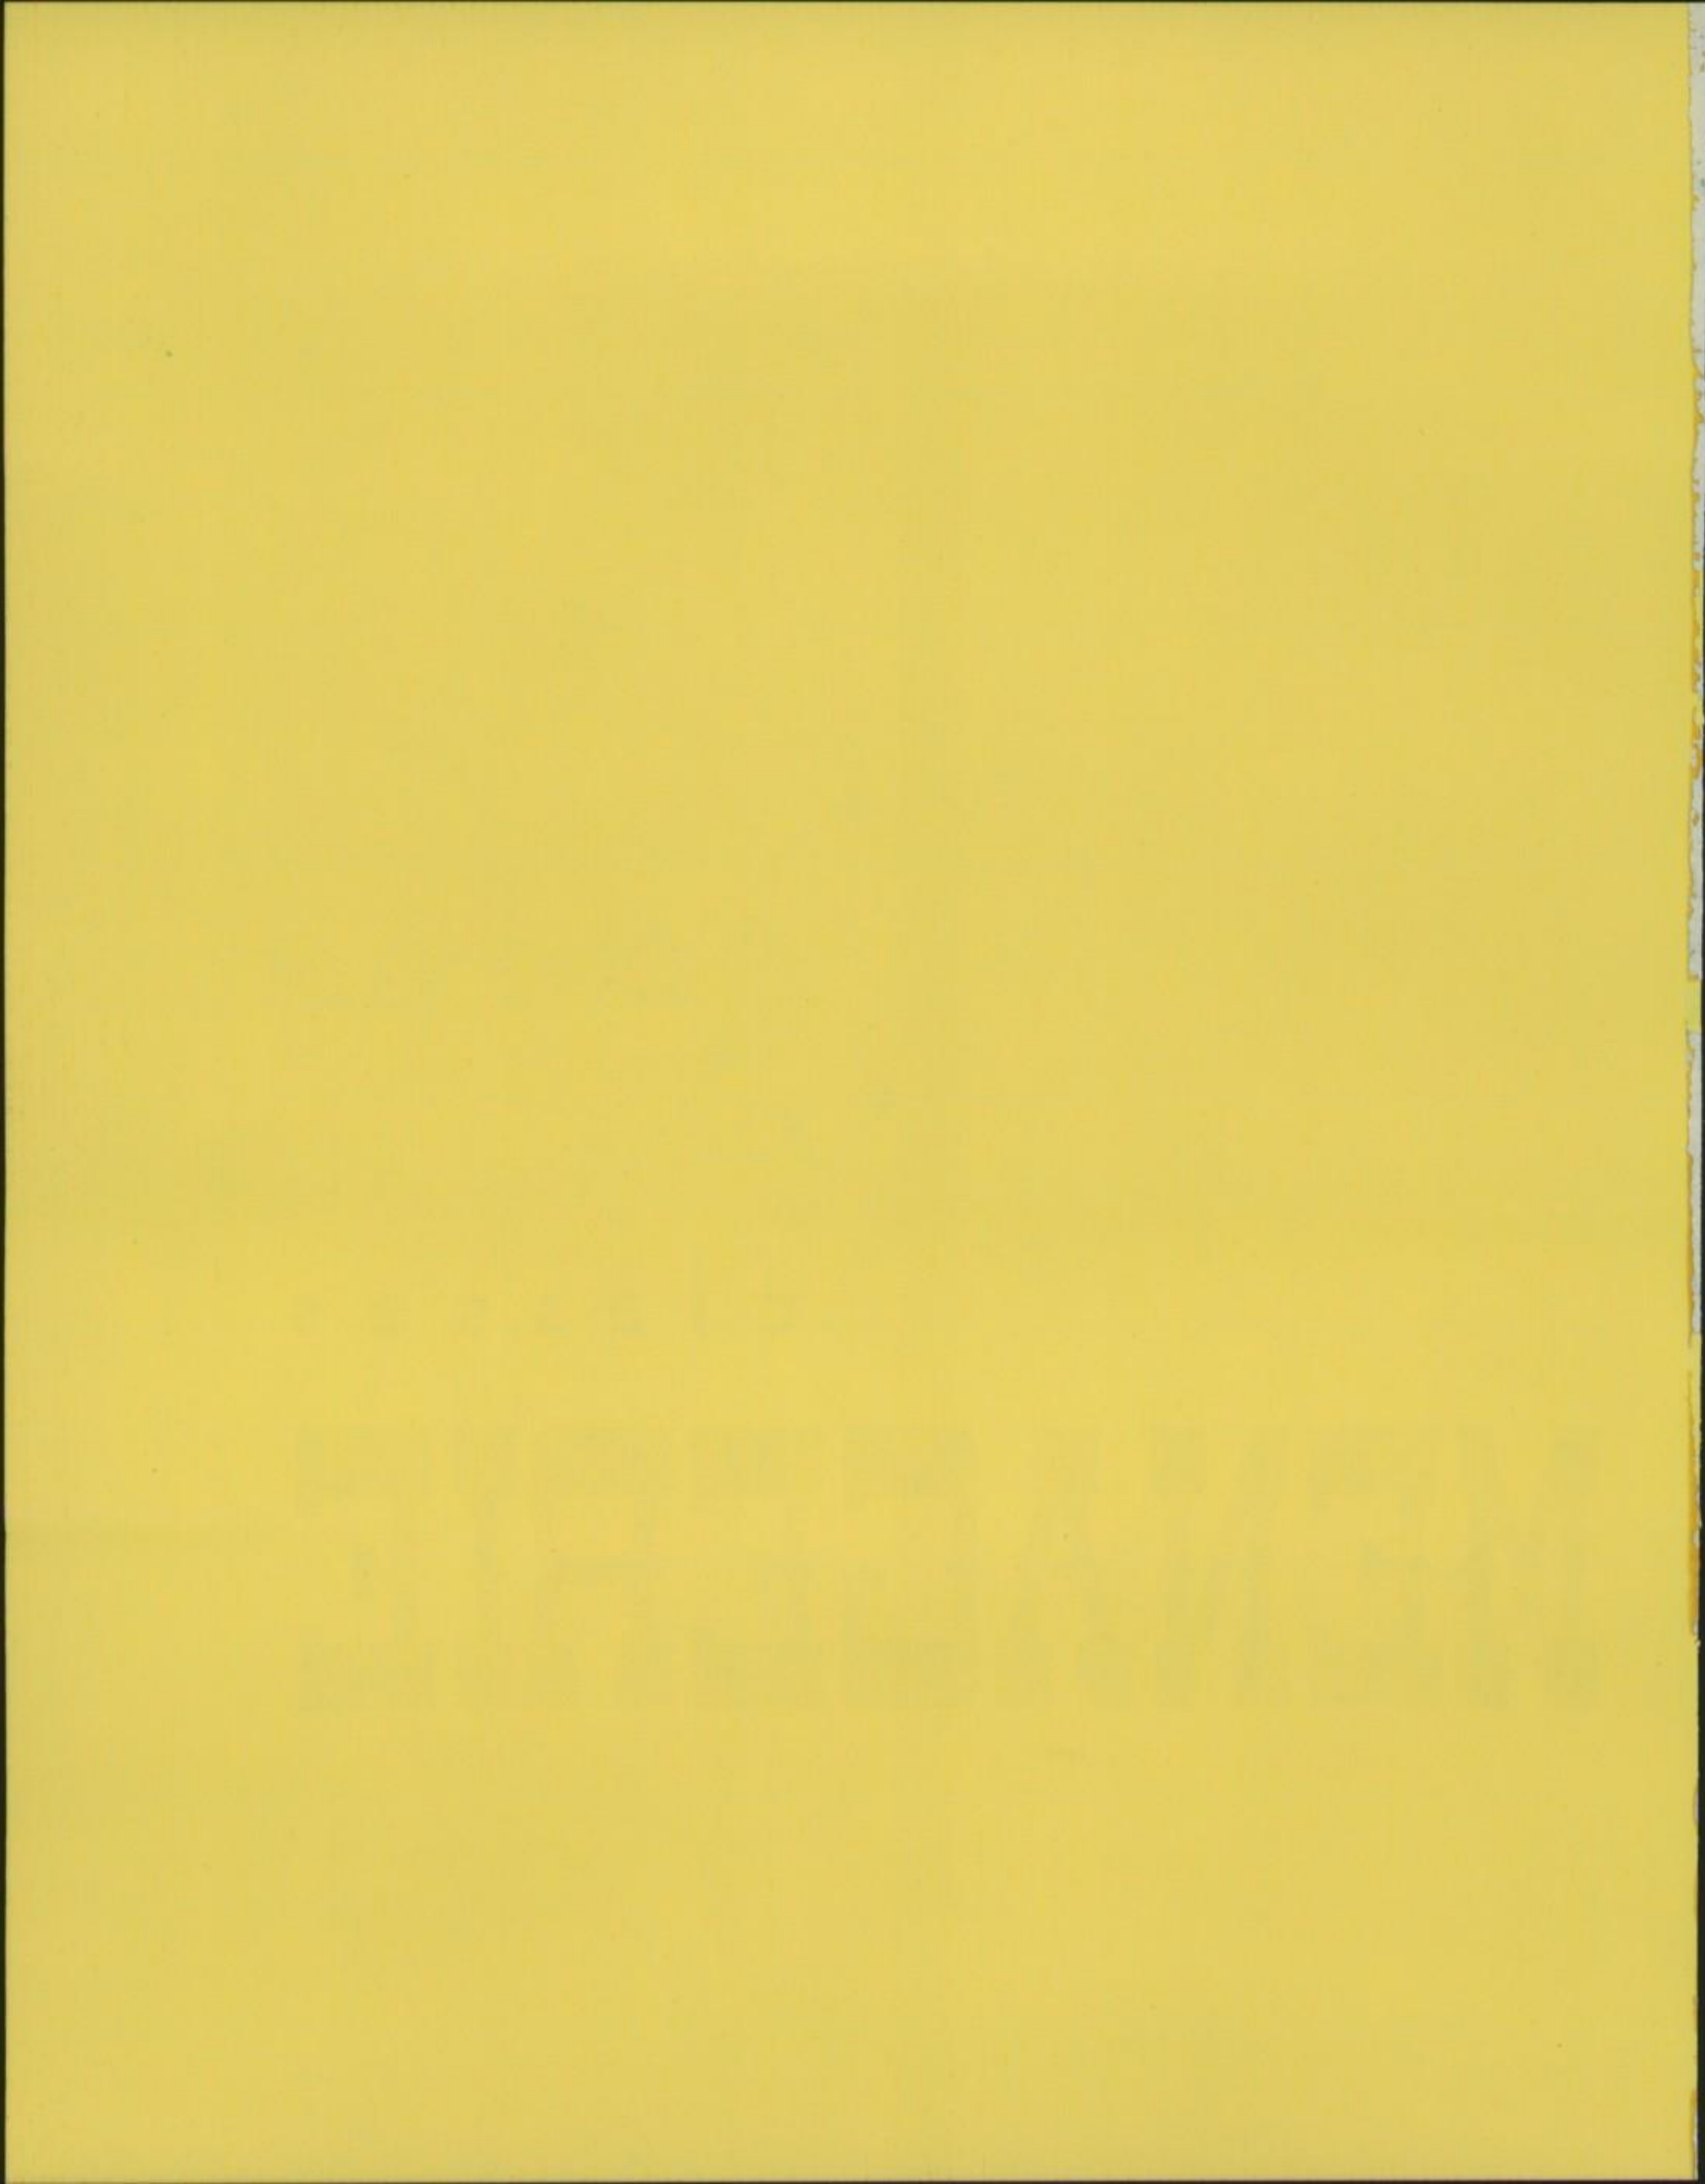

SENIOR SIDESHOWS

MENAGERIE

The Crew at Work

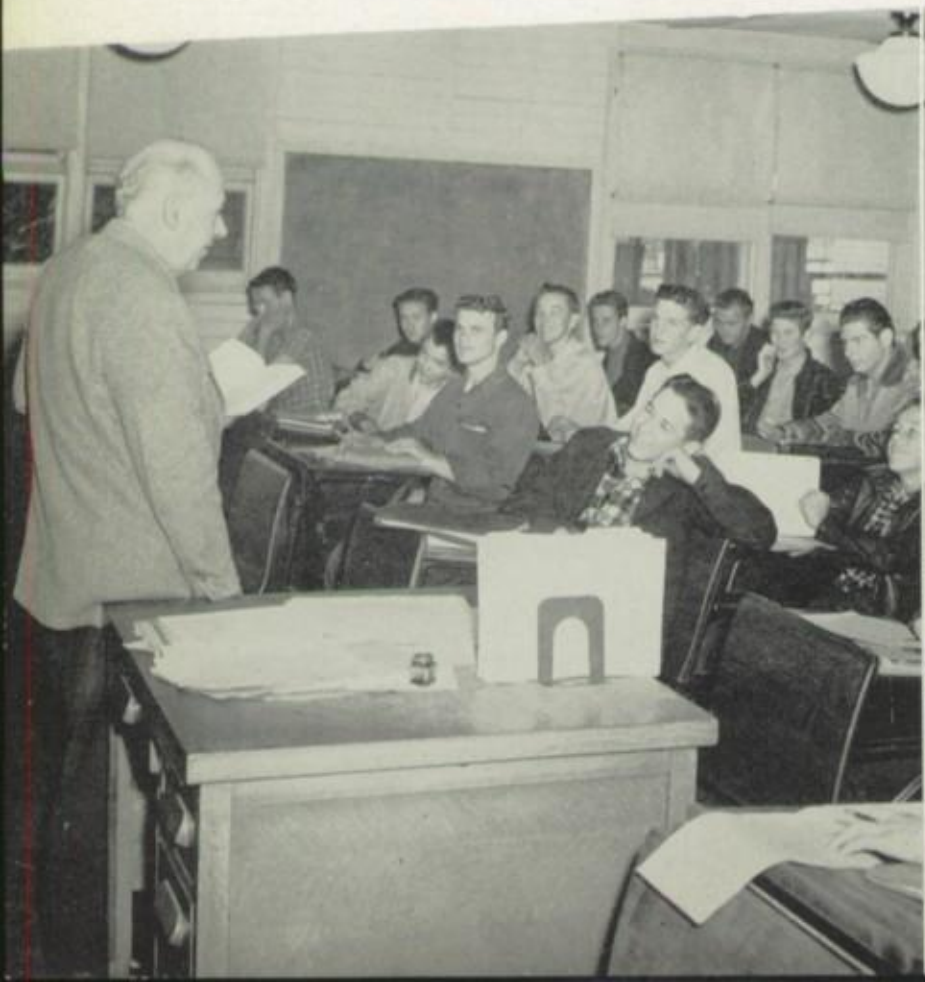

You don't have to say, "open sesame" to get into the building shown above. Just walk right in like the students in the picture are doing. Admission is free.

Good, I've made it before the crowds started. Now to get a re-admittance card from Mr. Steele so I'll be able to get back into class.

THE COMPLETE SHOW

One and one is two, two and two is four, what kind of class could this be? Ah ha, it's one of Mr. Houston's math classes discussing the day's assignment.

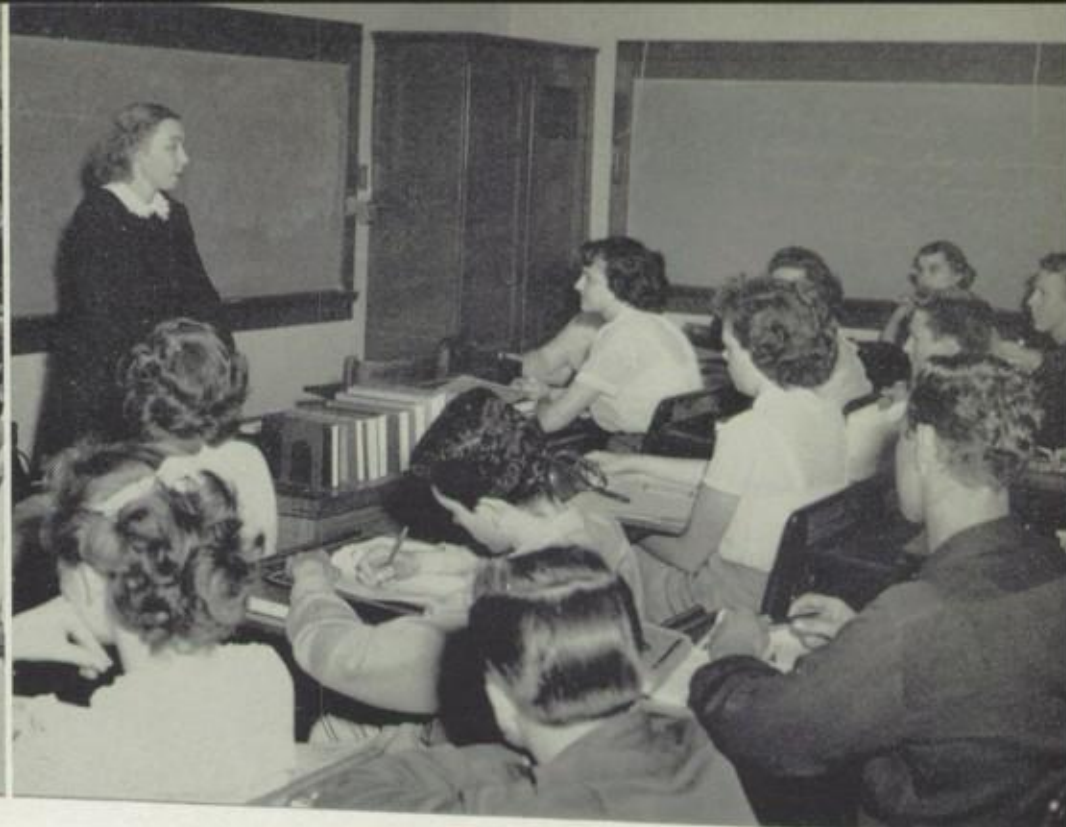

Need any counseling or vocational help? Can't decide what you want to be? The man to see is Mr. Robson in room 113; you'll be straightened out in no time.

It's nutrition! Get that money out! It's time to get that sandwich, roll, or carton of milk. Say, let's go over to the tree and see the gang.

The tardy bell has just rung. Miss Knowles gets up from her chair and starts instructing her class. The lesson for today is a familiar subject, "Your Autobiography."

AT WORK AND PLAY

That doesn't look like the Dodgers and Yankees playing, but I bet the game's just as good. Better back up out in left field; that's another Duke Snider up at bat.

It's three o'clock, school is out and some eighteen hundred students file out the doors of Bell High School, having completed another day of study.

OUR STUDIES GO ON WITH THE GREATEST OF EASE

Homecoming 1952

THE PASSING PARADE

With the parade of 1952 and 1953 passing in revue, the many accomplishments of the year in programs, assemblies, and shows brings about a warm feeling of pride and satisfaction for this past year at Bell High School.

In September there was the Howdy Day assembly brought to Bell by the students from U.C.L.A., the Howdy Day Hop, and the Jefferson High assembly.

October brought the P.T.A. paper drive, breakfast, and dance, Hat Day, and the Football Frolic.

November has come and gone but the Homecoming game with Huntington Park, and the winning of the Eastern League Championship in football lives on in everyone's memory.

December with the annual Sadie Hawkins Day and Dance, the El Toro Marine band assembly, and the Christmas program was topped off by the holiday season.

January with the Nominating assembly, Awards assembly, Senior Play "Sidewalks of New York," Girls' League Installation, Graduation Vespers, and Graduation brought to a close the semester of W'53.

SEPTEMBER 1952: Howdy Day assembly with the students of U.C.L.A. and Bell's own Fred Miller giving the students of Bell High a round of applause.

NOVEMBER 1952: Congratulations from Mr. Bianchi to his football team at the winning game which brought Bell High the Eastern League football championship.

NOVEMBER 1952: Homecoming Day with the crowning of Queen Donna Chernault by Nancilee Berryhill, Homecoming Queen of 1951.

DECEMBER 1952: Christmas program with Modern Dance Class bringing to life the story of "A Visit from St. Nick," with the A Cappella Choir doing the vocal arrangement.

JANUARY 1953: Nominating assembly with Gilbert Dyr giving his acceptance speech for his nomination of student body president and other candidates seated in back.

(Left to right) FEBRUARY 1953: First meeting of the newly formed Student Congress. MARCH 1953: Easter Vespers with the combined voices of three hundred choral students joined together for the "Lord's Prayer" in commemoration of the holiday season. MARCH 1953: Girls' Week brought to the attention of every faculty member the importance of girls and Nancy Baumbach was chosen to replace Mr. Virgil Frampton, principal, during Girls' Day at school. APRIL 1953: The Girls' Athletic Association sponsored a "Pirates Rendezvous" playday with other schools, in which interschool relations were strengthened. MAY 1953: Cotton Day brought forth from the girls an array of colorful cottons from which a queen and four princesses were chosen to represent the school. JUNE 1953: Graduation with all its glory arrived. Brush ups on last minute items are being taken care of before caps and gowns are proudly worn at graduation.

February, the first meeting of the newly formed Student Congress, plus two holidays set the scene.

March brought to light Girls' Week, the Hi-Y St. Patrick's Day Sock Hop, Easter Vespers with three hundred combined voices, the Senior Breakfast and the long-awaited Easter vacation.

April set a romantic scene with the annual Coronation Ball and the honored Queen and King of popularity and princesses, presiding over the court, the G.A.A. Playday with various city schools, a rollicking three-act Senior Play, "Heaven Can Wait," Career Day with various business professions represented to talk to the students, and Open House, for students, parents and teachers to review the year's progress.

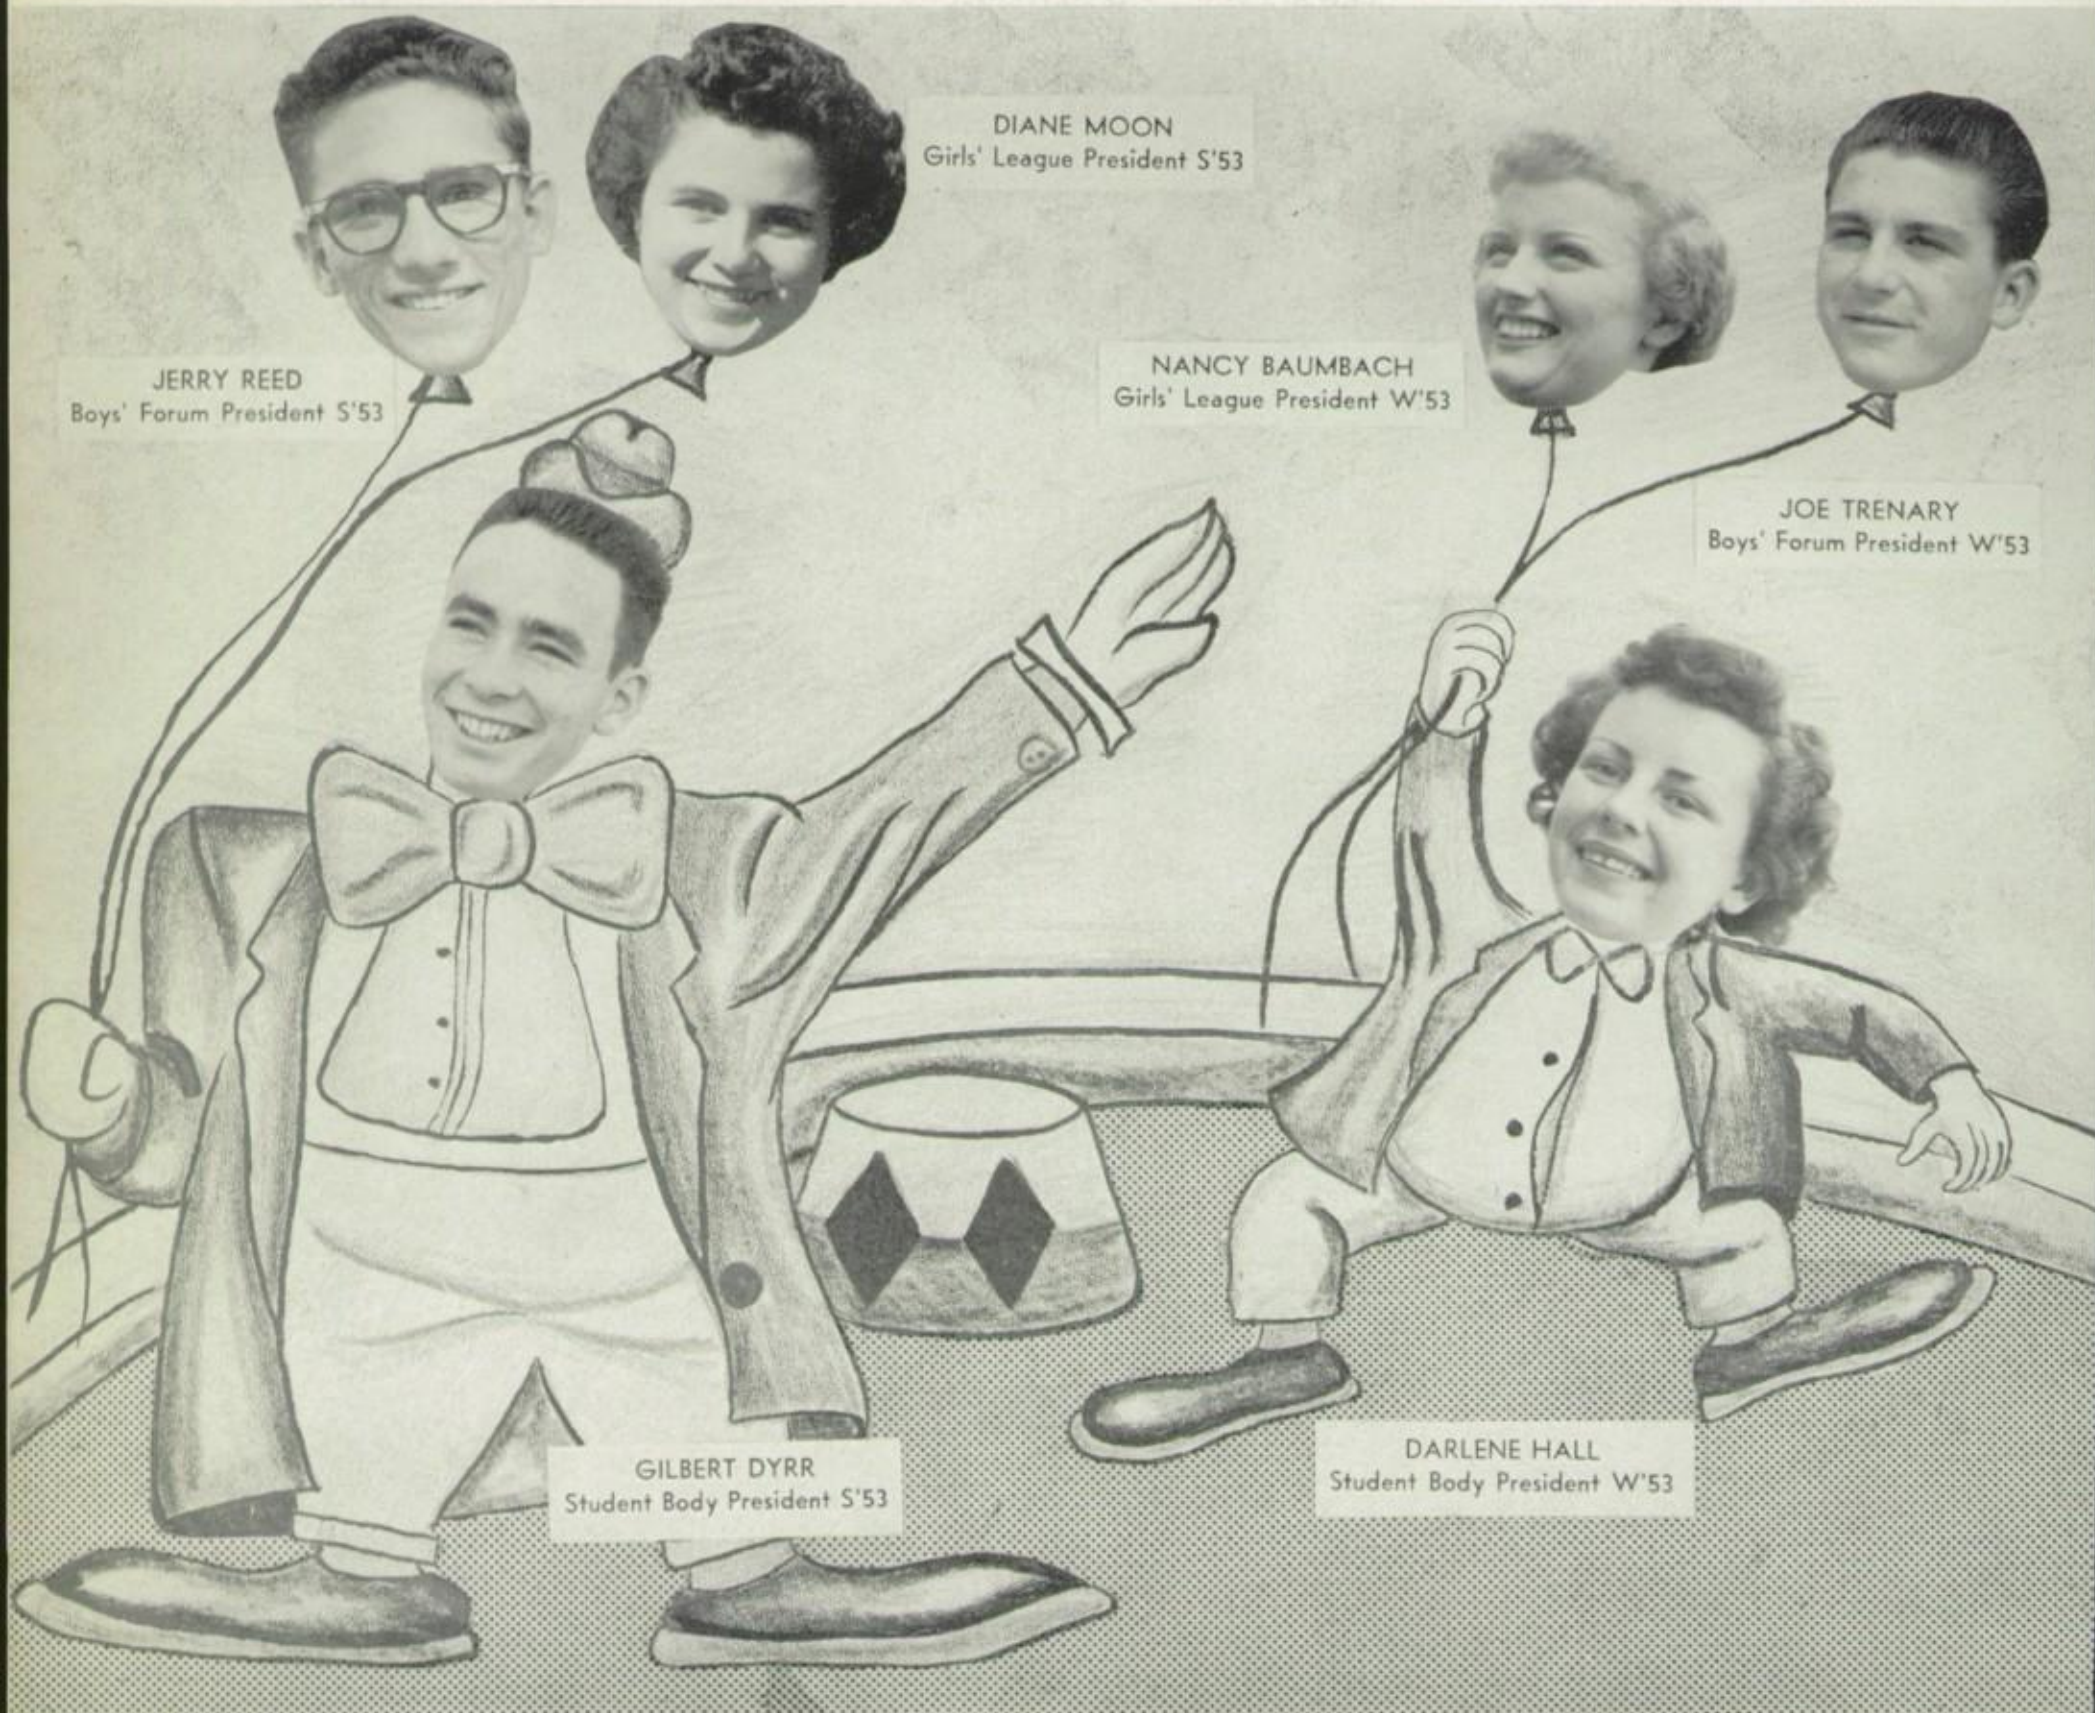

May featured the annual Boys' Week, Father-Son Carnival with five tremendous acts, Cotton

Day, sponsored by the Girls' League, the Spring Concert with choral groups directed by Mr. Robert V. Wells, the Senior Prom, A9 Class Day and Introduction Day for all new students planning to enter Bell High next fall.

June, the last month of the '52-'53 school year arrived and the student body elections, Awards assembly, Girls' League Installation, Graduation Vespers, a Belle of the Week luncheon, and Graduation brought to a close the S'53 semester.

Thus another school year has gone by, but whether you have graduated in years gone by, or have now just stepped out "along the rugged road of life," or whether you are looking forward to the years to come, this book and books to come are the closest link between you and your high school days. Cherish it!

IN THE CENTER RING

Reorganization was the theme of this year's leadership class. Under the guiding hands of Darlene Hall, winter student body president, and Gilbert Dyrr, summer student body president, student government reached a new high at Bell High.

Girls' League and Boys' Forum, besides working with the student body officers in a general reorganization, remodeled their own organizations. In this effort, Girls' League absorbed the former W' Council under the new constitution.

N.S.P.A. rates Chimes as first class

Fourteen smashing issues of the Chimes, under the editorship of Bob Falk, W'53 Chimes editor, were unfolded during the W'53 semester. Highlighted editions were: "Back to School," which was handed out to every student as they entered the school in September; "Homecoming;" "Christmas;" printed in the usual red and green; "Cub;" and the final edition of the semester, the "Senior Edition."

W'53 Chimes took honors at the Los Angeles City College Press Day by placing second in coverage and receiving honorable mention in feature writing. They also placed second in the Community Chest coverage in competition with other Los Angeles City Schools.

Tom Murray, S'53 Chimes editor, put the finishing touches to the year with fifteen editions. "April Fools," doing a take-off on the Los Angeles Mirror; "Cub;" and the bi-semester "Senior Edition," were the outstanding papers of the summer semester.

East Los Angeles Junior College Press Day brought honors to two staff members: Bob Falk, who won honorable mention in editorial writing; and Eugene Holtz who was awarded honorable mention in news writing, in competition with about twenty-three Los Angeles school papers.

Bell High school, for the third year in a row, won the Red Cross plaque for the best coverage in accordance with the Red Cross Drive. This entitles the school to keep the plaque permanently.

Chimes faculty adviser is Mr. Charles M. Garven.

NO WHIPS NEEDED

SCHOLARSHIP

With the motto "Scholarship for Service" Bell High School's chapter of the California Scholarship Federation is setting an outstanding example of achievement.

Among other things the Scholarship Society boasts six Sealbearers from both semesters, and of having presented Bell Gardens High School with their charter from the state federation.

STUDENT COURT

The recently reactivated Student Court, under the very able direction of Mr. Robert Bosanko, got off to a fine start this semester when officers were elected for the summer term.

LADIES

An honorary organization assigned to keep things shipshape around Bell is the Ladies, under the direction of Miss Barbara Smith, girls' vice principal. Along with keeping order, Ladies help serve at the various luncheons and dinners at Bell High.

Ray Ayers and George Sattler, two of the Bill of Rights speakers that presented a program and attended a luncheon at the Biltmore Hotel during Bill of Rights Week. Christmas pageant was presented under the direction of Mrs. Lotene Morgan.

GREASE PAINTERS

George Sattler, Ray Ayers, Duane Cole, and Pat McNabb spoke on "The Bill of Rights" starting the W'53 semester rolling. Also along the public speaking line, a discussion was held on "Young America Speaks," with Darlene Hall, Gilbert Dyrr, George Sattler, and Diane Moon stating their views on "Can Youth Centers Materially Decrease Juvenile Delinquency?" Lorraine Dageforde, Pat McNabb, George Sattler, and Duane Cole entered speech contests for the "Daughters of the Golden West" and Pepperdine College. Lorraine and Pat took first and second place, respectively.

"Sidewalks of New York," with Dennis Hollow, undoubtedly stealing the show with the traditional villain part, brought down the curtain on W'53.

In the S'53 semester, Mr. Raymond Phillips took the lead as the new drama department head, starting the semester rolling with a three act comedy, "Heaven Can Wait," with Dennis Lunsford, Jack Wilson, and Ken Goldstein trying to steal the limelight.

Joanne Watson, and Lorraine Dageforde won the annual Lions Club Oratorical Contest from Bell-Maywood. Lorraine went on to win the District and compete in the regional finals. Donna Reece competed in the Business and Professional Women's Oratorical Contest which was held at Bell High School this year.

Drama and speech departments contributed many a pleasurable hour and brought outstanding honors to Bell High School under the direction of Mr. Thomas L. Cox, W'53 and Mr. Raymond Phillips, S'53, department heads.

SLAVE

What's the matter? Haven't you ever seen men before?

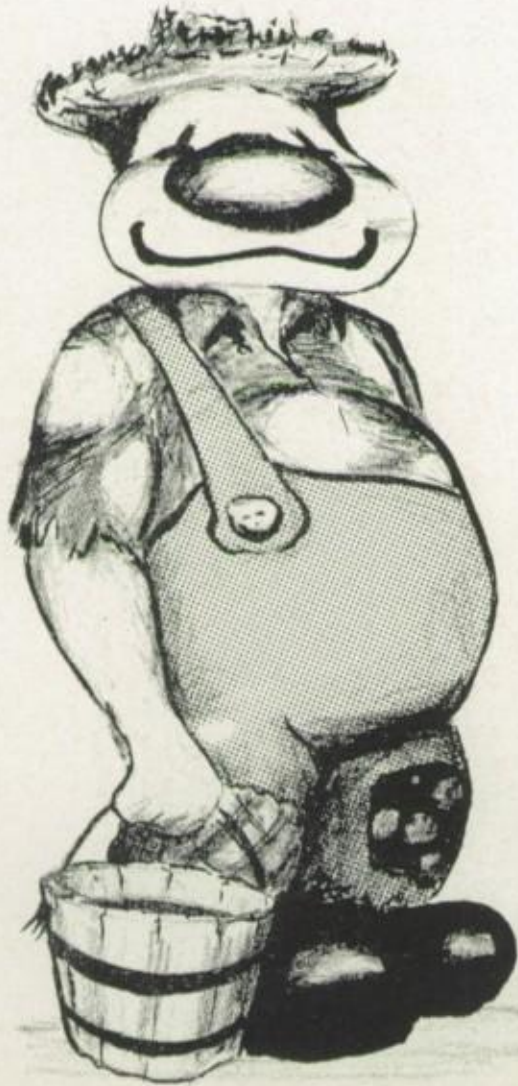

Sold to the young girl with the freckles!

How much more am I offered for this gentleman?

The marriage booth is just around the corner, boys.

THE SADIE HAS

"Hear now, ornly two dollars fer this hear fine speci-man? Look at his fizeke, his strong legs! His legs could curry water up and down these here hills fur nigh on to ferteen years and never give out! Come girls, get him befer someone else duz. Go-in', goin', gone! Sold to the yung lady with the twenty-five sent cegar."

Many a lad was auctioned off to the girls for the rest of the day, to carry books, clean lockers and other work. The guys and gals dressed in levis, and all joined in the fun of the day with the teachers also swinging into the affair.

There she goes with a do-si-do.

Do the Bunny Hop—hop, hop.

Lined up for the grand march with Jerry doing a little extra jig.

King Lil' Abner, Ray Mannke, and Queen Daisy Mae, Margie Lopez...

SADIE DAY

COME TO TOWN

"Swing yur podner, high and low, hi-de-hi, hi-de-ho, there you go with a do-si-do. Gosh, Jed, ain't never seen such a shin-dig since grandma's days. Sure wishin' yud larn to dance! Why duz lze always have to get hooked with a guylute who don't know how ter dance?"

Shouts which lasted and re-echoed through the halls weeks after denoted the success of the second annual Slave Day and Sadie, which was led by Nancy Baumbach, Girls' League president, on December 5.

THE MERRY THRONG

TURNABOUT, March 1953—Faith and begora, sure and 'tis a fine way to celebrate St. Patrick's Day.

HOWDY DAY HOP, September 1952—Dreamy music, soft lights, and young love set the atmosphere for the first dance of the semester.

P.T.A. PAPER DRIVE DANCE, October 1952—In appreciation for all the paper collected for the drive, the P.T.A. entertained the students with a colossal dance.

TURNABOUT, March 1953—When Irish eyes are sparkling, sure you know 'tis right and gay.

FOOTBALL FROLIC, October 1952—Grid season was again started with the traditional Football Frolic, with Banning High School, our first grid opponent.

HOWDY DAY HOP, September 1952—The girl you're dancing with, Jan, couldn't be that short, could she?

CENTER: Many plans go into setting up A9 Class Day and Graduation but both W'53 and S'53 A9 class officers have done outstanding jobs, in all phases of junior high life. (Left to right) S'53: Richard Jenkins, Diane Pavloff, Deanna Candland, and Joe Raymond.

UPPER RIGHT: Representing one of the many various Junior Girls' League activities, is the B7 tea for all B7 students and parents, with entertainment and refreshments as well as speeches about junior high activities setting the agenda.

JUNIOR SIDE SHOW

Junior high years come and go with a flash, but the memories last forever. Junior high students at Bell will always remember the fun they had at school, going to assemblies and those wonderful playnights.

A9's are the happiest of the junior high students for they will soon be entering senior high school.

For the winter '53 class the A9 officers were: Don Ewert, president; Mike Carroll, vice president; Janet Webster, secretary; Jeanne Sangineto, treasurer.

Red and white were the W'53 sparkling class colors. January 8 was the date of the Class Day. Graduation followed on January 30.

Lavender and mint green, two beautiful summer colors, were the colors for the S'53 class. Class Day was on May 28. June 19 was the day of the happy event, graduation.

Class officers were: Richard Jenkins, president; Joe Raymond, vice president; Deanna Candland, secretary; Diane Pavloff, treasurer.

SECOND ROW: Richard Jenkins, Student Body vice president; Eileen Soo Hoo, Girls' League treasurer; Elaine Wright, Girls' League secretary; Peggy Millsap, Student Body secretary; Richard Parrish, Student Body president.

This year the Junior High Student Body and Girls' League has gone overboard to make the younger part of Bell important. How could they help it with leaders as they have had in the winter and summer cabinets.

The reliable junior officers were: W'53 Student Body: Richard Parrish, president; Richard Jenkins, vice president; Peggy Millsap, secretary; Janice Shafer, treasurer. S'53 Student Body: Richard McKenzie, president; Richard Herman, vice president; Barbara Thomas, secretary; Elaine Wright, treasurer.

W'53 Junior High Girls' League officers were: Barbara Thomas, president; Jeri Duncan, vice president; Elaine Wright, secretary; Eileen SooHoo, treasurer.

S'53 officers were: Janice Shafer, president; Phyllis Yeager, vice president; Frances Lockridge, secretary; Marcene Le Clair, treasurer.

Jr. Ushers, one of the highly represented service clubs of Bell, does its part by ushering at all junior high assemblies, A9 class day, and at junior high graduation. In their dark skirts and light blouses, the fifteen members of the Jr. Ushers are always on the job under the sponsorship of Mrs. Emily Desper.

Winter officers were: Lennette Hammer, president; Barbara Johnston, vice president; Connie Collins, secretary.

EAGLE-ETTES

A get acquainted party, a farewell party, and a turkey raffle, from which the proceeds were contributed to the Veterans Hospital were a few of the many activities conducted by the Eagle-ettes this past year.

This club, under the fine sponsorship of Dr. Jessie Bailey, was organized to get Junior High girls interested in the social and service life of Bell High School.

Officers for the past year were: Marcene LeClair, president; Kay Haggart, vice president; Jackie Chapman, secretary; Janice Shaffer, treasurer; for the W'53 cabinet.

Serving on the S'53 cabinet were: Jackie Chapman, president; Francis Lockridge, vice president; Diane Pavloff, secretary; Phyllis Yeager, treasurer.

JR. DRAMA

Jr. Drama has contributed to the Bell High Student Body and community by presenting pantomimes, skits, and a comedy play to the Parent Teachers Association just before Christmas.

Main purpose of Jr. Drama is to teach the class proper grammar and techniques of acting. This will enable the members to become better acquainted with drama before entering Thespians. Jr. Drama is under the very capable leadership of Mr. Ray Phillips.

JR. HONOR SOCIETY

Jr. Honor Society, the Junior High's scholarship organization this year, forwarded its ideals of higher scholarship. Jr. Honor Society has had several socials of which the bi-annual initiation parties, a skating party, and a picnic were but a few. Again this year Mrs. Emily Belcher ably sponsored the group.

To become a member of Jr. Honor Society, one must have at least three A's on his report card.

Winter officers for this year were: Diana Candland, president; Carolyn VanDyke, vice president; Kay Haggart, secretary; Diana Merrell, treasurer.

Summer cabinet: Marcene LeClair, president; Kay Haggart, vice president; Ann Haggart, secretary; Francis Lockridge, treasurer.

ADVANCE MEN

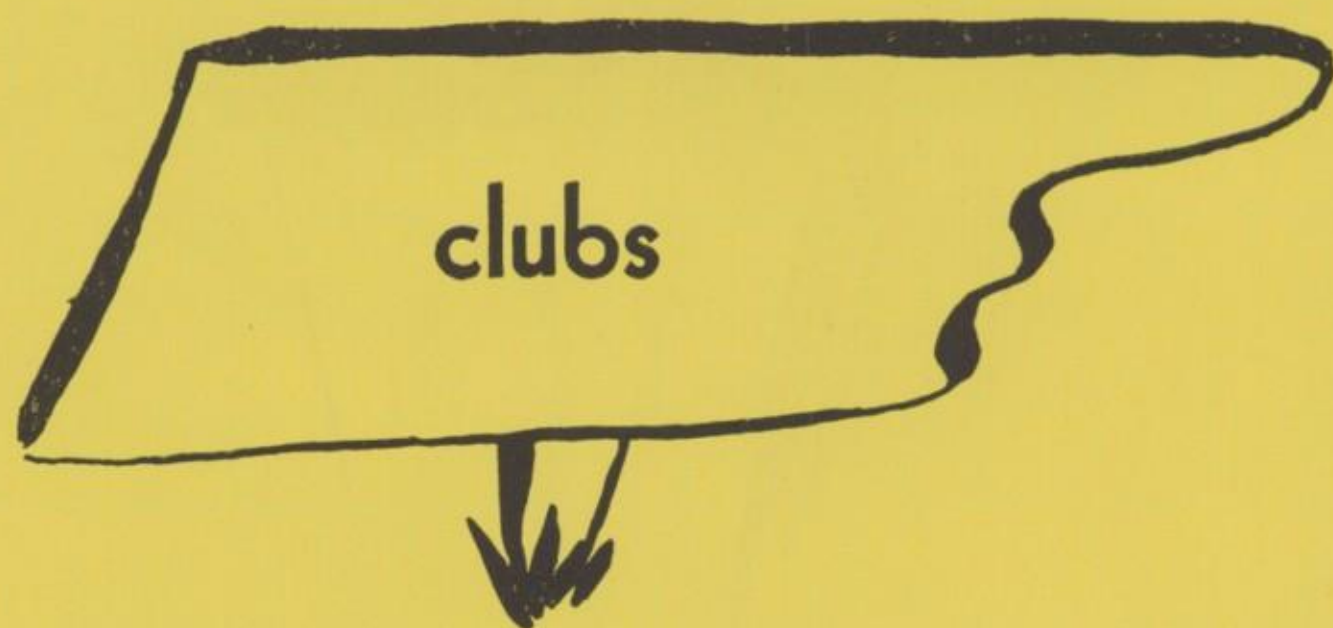

"Advance Men" is an appropriate name for the annual crew, as they arrange the layout, publicize, and set the stage for the coming of the annual. Thus, so do the circus "Advance Men" arrange for the lot, publicize and rouse up the town even before the circus makes its appearance.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Charles M. Garven, "Under the Big Top," has been set up and established for your enjoyment. Now, we the annual staff, sincerely hope that this "Eagle for 1953" is enjoyed by each and every one of the students of Bell High School.

Sponsoring of noon movies and dances were the Lettermen's main contribution to school activities during the past year.

Lettermens Club, which is sponsored by Mr. Steve Bianchi, consists of boys who have earned their varsity letters.

Serving in the winter cabinet were: Bud Pritchard, president; Lathon Brewer, vice president; Paul Stern, secretary-treasurer; Joe Trenary, sergeant at arms.

Taking over for the summer cabinet were: Jim Ruth, president; Joe Trenary, vice president; Pat Clements, secretary; Lathon Brewer, treasurer; Bud Pritchard, sergeant at arms.

"Don't push in line," "Want to buy a yarn doll?" This is what the Lettergirls were saying as they guarded the cafeteria and sold yarn dolls, made in the school colors on Homecoming Day. Sportnights and a progressive dinner were also a part of this group's activities.

All of this was done under the capable direction of Mrs. Lotene Morgan, club sponsor. Winter officers were: Patricia Standley, president; Gloria Standley, vice president; Shirley Klingsiek, secretary; Donna Reece, treasurer; Margie Anderson and Eula Hunter, sergeants at arms.

Summer officers were: Betty Shakeley, president; Margie Anderson, vice president; Eunice Lovering, secretary; Carolyn Lietz, treasurer; Rosemary Verrell and Gloria Severance, sergeants at arms.

LETTERGIRLS

VALKYRIES

One of the outstanding service clubs at Bell is the Valkyries, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Vera MacFarland and Mrs. Emily Belcher.

Diane Moon, president, headed the winter cabinet with Carolyn Lietz, as vice president; Joanne Watson, treasurer; Janice Kephart, secretary; Rosemary Verrell, business manager; Barbara Shubin, historian; Marlene Hoar and Sharon Fogelstrom, sergeants at arms.

Summer cabinet consisted of Lupe Gallardo, president; Marlene Hoar, vice president; Martha Patterson, treasurer; Gloria Severance, secretary; Lorna Russell, business manager; Thelma Avery, historian; Donna Searing and Janet Robinson, sergeants at arms.

Czars started the year with a bang by sponsoring the "All Clubs Picnic." The members attended many socials and ended the year with their annual formal.

Winter officers who worked to make the picnic a success were: Dave Wallander, president; Morris Adams, vice president; Bill Bush, secretary; Roger Gewecke, treasurer; Don Truitt, sergeant at arms.

Summer officers consisted of: Ronnie Freeland, president; Bud Pritchard, vice president; Al McEwan, secretary; Felix Coggins, treasurer; Ronnie Merrill, sergeant at arms.

Czars were led both semesters under the excellent supervision of Mr. Larry Osburn.

ELITES

HI-Y

Bell High School's Hi-Y organization, under the capable sponsorship of Mr. Gordon A. Naslund, wound up a semester of varied and interesting activities when they held their semi-annual Hi-Y formal at the Pasadena Athletic Club.

Representing Bell High School at the annual Hi-Y Congress at Monterey, California, in January, were Lathon Brewer and Jerry Reed.

Officers for the W'53 semester were as follows: Tom Lazear, president; Jan Cline, vice president; George Sattler, treasurer.

Sworn in as officers for S'53 were: George Sattler, president; Lathon Brewer, vice president; Ronnie Watts, treasurer.

With feelings based around the thought of world friendship, the Elites Y-Teens have brought another year to a close.

Winter officers included: Mary Bailey, president; Charlotte Anderson, vice president; Grace Sferrazza, secretary; Darlene Hall, treasurer; Sharon Kelso, inter-club-council representative; Lou Alice Parker and Arlene Pepper, sergeant at arms; Pat Hare, chaplain; and Lorene Glenn, historian.

S'53 officers consisted of: Sharon Kelso, president; Grace Sferrazza, vice president; Shirley Collins, secretary; Laureen Rodtheut, treasurer; Joanne Dodson, inter-club-council representative; Pat Barnum and Pat Douglas, sergeants at arms; Lona Rae Duddy, chaplain; Pat Hare, historian; and Carol Morse, point recorder.

Mrs. Jetta Henderson sponsored the club during the winter semester. The summer semester was sponsored by Helen Vartainian.

Highlighting another year, Key Club has made great advancement as a service club in school.

Sponsored by Mr. Thomas Cox, the Key Club is active in many school activities, including sponsoring the Farewell Bawl.

Kiwanis International is the sponsor of all the Key Clubs, with the Bell-Maywood Kiwanis sponsoring the Bell High chapter.

Officers for the year were: Stan Wolfard, president; Ronnie Mande, vice president; Calvin Brown, secretary; Brent Dalrymple, treasurer. During the spring semester Ronald Hales was elected as the new secretary.

W' COUNCIL

Girls' League Council, or W' Council as it was formerly called, made many new changes this year. The constitution of Girls' League was rewritten making the second vice president of Girls' League the council of Girls' League Council. The name was changed so that the closeness of the two organizations would be felt. This plan went into effect at the beginning of the second semester.

The W'53 officers were: Barbara Shubin, council; Donna Searing, vice council; Thelma Avery, secretary; and Peggy Mackey, treasurer.

The S'53 officers were: Donna Searing, council; Doris Lindberg, secretary; and Marie Weiss, treasurer.

Miss Jean Reed and Mrs. Lucille Way are the co-sponsors.

During the past semester the members of the Press Club have had a snow party, a "Come as You Are Breakfast," a combined Christmas party with Quill and Scroll, and have sponsored a banquet for all journalism and annual students which was held at Scrivner's Drive In.

Purpose of the Press Club is to foster better understanding of journalism.

W'53 officers were: Bill Jones, president; Cathy Phillips, vice president; Grace Sferrazza, secretary; Irene Barcza, treasurer; Marvin Levine, sergeant at arms.

S'53 officers were: Grace Sferrazza, president; Tom Kallunki, vice president; Pat Hare, secretary; Janet Boxdorfer, treasurer; Tom Murray, sergeant at arms.

THIRD ROW: Marvin Levine, Calvin Brown, Bob Falk, Carl Becker, Monte Coleman, Paul Koubek, Tom Kallunki, Eugene Holtz, Leon Estrine, Marvin Roberts.

Outstanding is the word that should be given to every member of Quill and Scroll, for it is an organization composed of all the leading students that work on the Chimes and Eagle, Bell high school's newspaper and annual.

This society selects the outstanding news, feature, and sports writer of the semester from the Chimes staff.

Sponsorship is in the very capable hands of Mr. Charles M. Garven, Chimes and Eagle adviser.

Winter officers were: Gilbert Dyrr, president; Pat McNabb, vice president; Catherine Phillips, secretary; Janetta Thompson, treasurer; Ted Romanov, sergeant at arms; Darlene Hall, historian.

Summer officers were: Adolph DeBlasio, president; Ted Romanov, vice president; Anne Scuri, secretary; Monte Coleman, treasurer; Tom Kallunki, sergeant at arms; Roylene Skinner, historian.

Girls' League installations, assemblies, shows, and all other functions that call for capable handling of students, come under the heading of just another job for the Sr. Ushers.

These girls are ready to keep order, seat visitors, and hand out programs to those Senior Plays, Vespers, and evening performances that are so much a part of the school. Sponsorship this year was headed by Miss Elizabeth Fichtner.

Winter officers were: Dorothy Cooper, president; Pat Hare, vice president; Christine Dapper, secretary; Alice Ortgier, treasurer.

Summer officers were: Alice Ortgier, president; Edythe Elliott, vice president; Mary Lee, secretary; Barbara Clayton, treasurer.

ASTRONOMY

Astronomy Club, a new group at Bell with fifteen members, mixes pleasure with research as members take trips to observatories.

Some of the places the club has visited are: Palomar Observatory, Mt. Wilson and Griffith Park. Members keep very busy making telescopes and studying heavenly bodies, under the capable supervision of Mr. Ollie Coker.

Winter officers were: William Herr, president; Richard Swain, vice president; Janice Telford, secretary; Richard Parrish, treasurer.

Summer officers were: Sarah Yahne, president; William Herr, vice president; Janice Telford, secretary; Sue Brimmer, treasurer.

With the purpose of promoting friendship and harmony among students, the Christian Fellowship Club was led under the very able direction of Mr. Henry Dirks.

The semester started with a progressive dinner, held on January 16. The installation banquet was held at the Bell Friends Church on February 6. A picnic at South Gate Park brought the semester to a close.

Officers for the W'53 semester were: Peggy Ferris, president; Peter Sundin, vice president; Eva Sundin, secretary-treasurer; Jackie Worthington, social chairman; Beverly Raymond, song leader and publicity chairman; Beverly Johnson, organist.

Officers for the S'53 semester were Carolyn Dundas, president; David Cowley, vice president; June Glasscock, secretary-treasurer; Lois Anderson, music director; Diana Candland, social chairman; Lorraine Dageford, look out chairman; Ronnie Pruitt, publicity chairman; Beverly Johnson, organist.

Prize winning float this year at the Homecoming Day was contributed by the World Friendship Club. Although the members have not had too many activities, the club's main project this year was a scrapbook which contained many snapshots of the boys and girls from Bell in the various classes.

Under the capable sponsorship of Mr. Guy Puckett, the W'53 officers were: Janetta Thompson, president; Marilyn Bybee, vice president; Jacquie Thomas, secretary; Joyce Vedova, treasurer.

S'53 officers were: Paul Thrasher, president; Margaret Finlayson, vice president; Connie Collins, secretary; Pat Brubaker, treasurer.

CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

The club is composed of students from both senior and junior high classes. Because credit is given for the class, members do not have any outside activities or officers.

Mr. Gail Thompson has been the very capable sponsor of the club for the past three years.

STAGE CREW

One of the hardest working organizations in school is the Stage Crew. Under the capable sponsorship of Mr. Roscoe O. Butcher, Stage Crew is vitally connected with all school activities.

Officers of the fall term were: Phillip Peery, crew chief; Gerald Scheib, chief electrician; Carl Hinman, chief flyman; Glenn Spearman and Jerry Wilson, soundmen; Dave Burke, William Huber, and Al Licht, carpenters.

Phillip Peery repeated as crew chief in the spring term while Gerald Scheib and Rodney Dunn were electricians; Dave Burke and Richard Swain, flymen; Glenn Spearman and Jerry Wilson, soundmen; and Ronald Giacoma and Bob Terenzio, carpenters.

PEN & PENCIL

Pen and Pencil club, one of the newer clubs around Bell, is an ideal club for junior high students who are interested in journalism. It was organized with the purpose of giving its members background on the subject of writing. Their very fine and capable sponsor, Mr. Albert Evans, has arranged for them to hear lectures at their noon meetings by many editors of high school and junior college newspapers.

Officers for winter '53 included: Kenny Marsh, editor; Sally Seibring, associate editor; and Marsha Mathews, art editor.

Serving as the summer '53 officers were: Marsha Mathews, editor; Barbara Urey, associate editor; and Kenny Marsh, business manager.

Bell's "stars of the future" in the form of the Thespians, presented an old fashioned melodrama, "Side-walks of New York," this year under the direction of Mr. Thomas Cox.

To further their interests in the theater the group attended productions at local universities and interviewed professional actors.

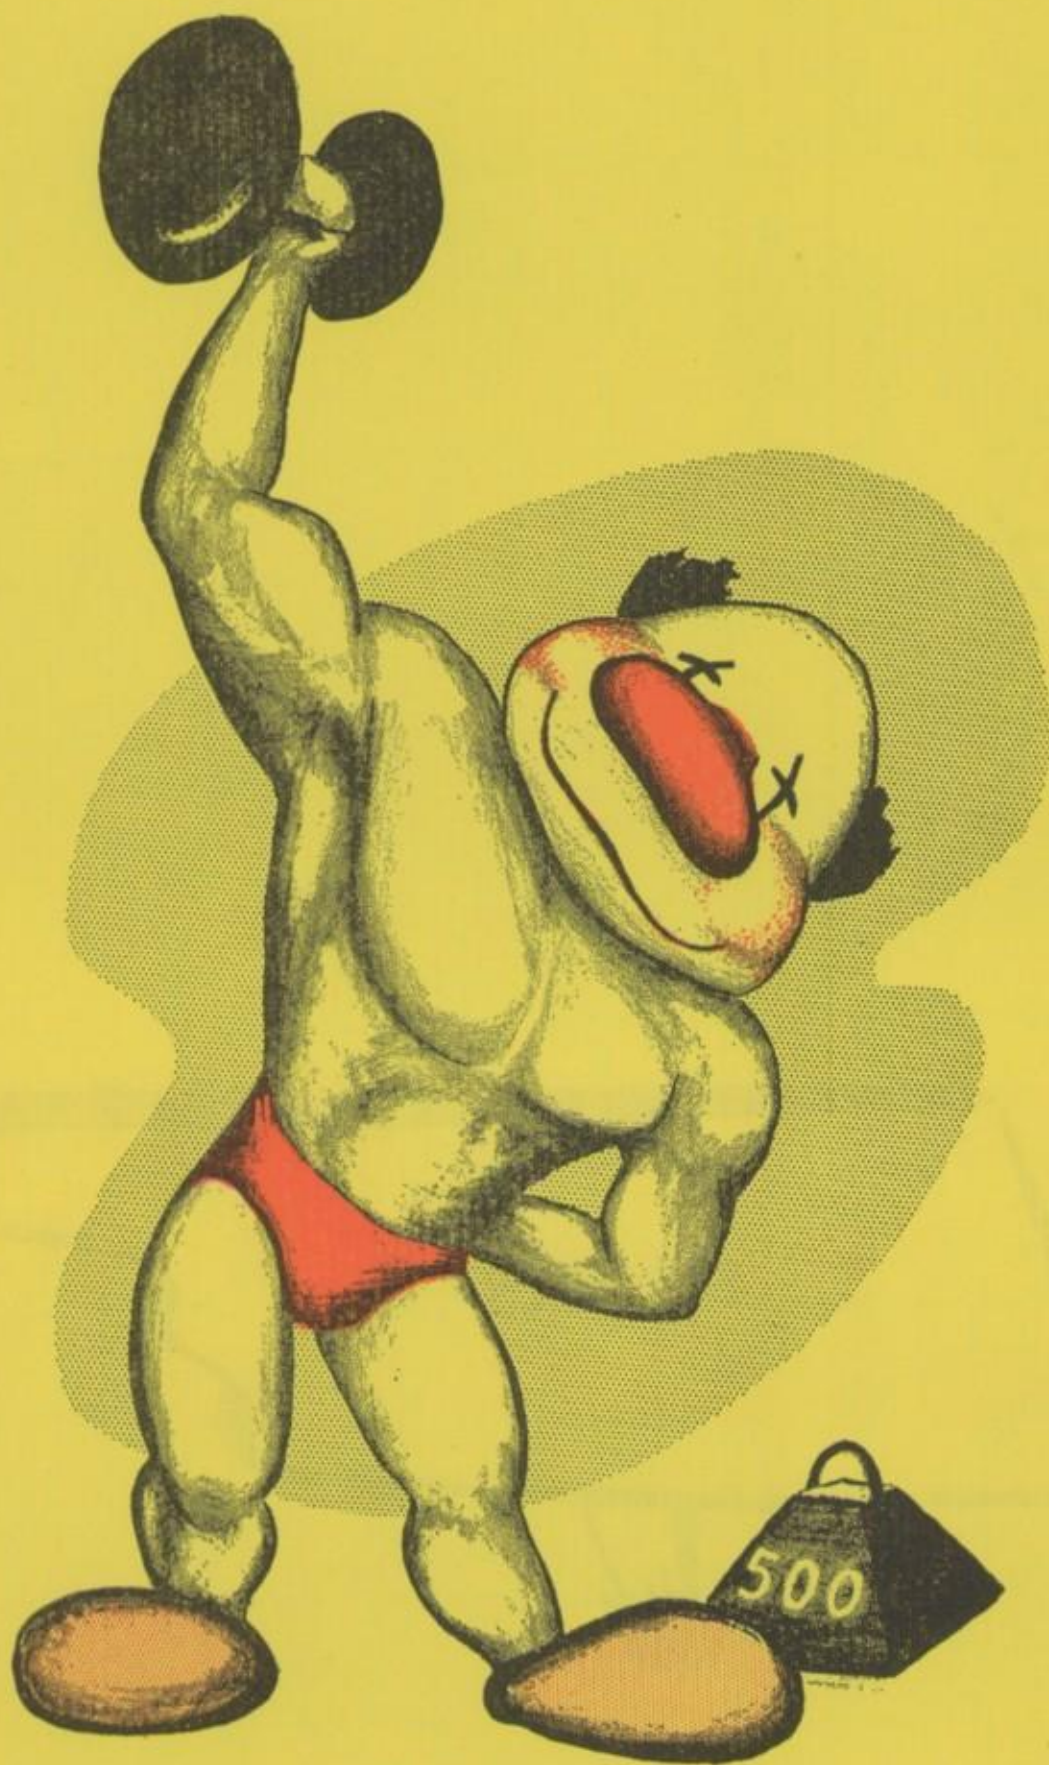

Winter president of the Thespians was Morris Adams. His cabinet consisted of Bob Rice, vice president; Beverly Carlucci, secretary; Martha Best, treasurer; Ray Mannka, sergeant at arms.

The summer semester brought to Bell a new drama teacher, Mr. Ray Phillips, a former student of U.C.L.A.

Summer president was Jack Wilson, with Bob Drosbecke, secretary.

Eastern League Champs 1952

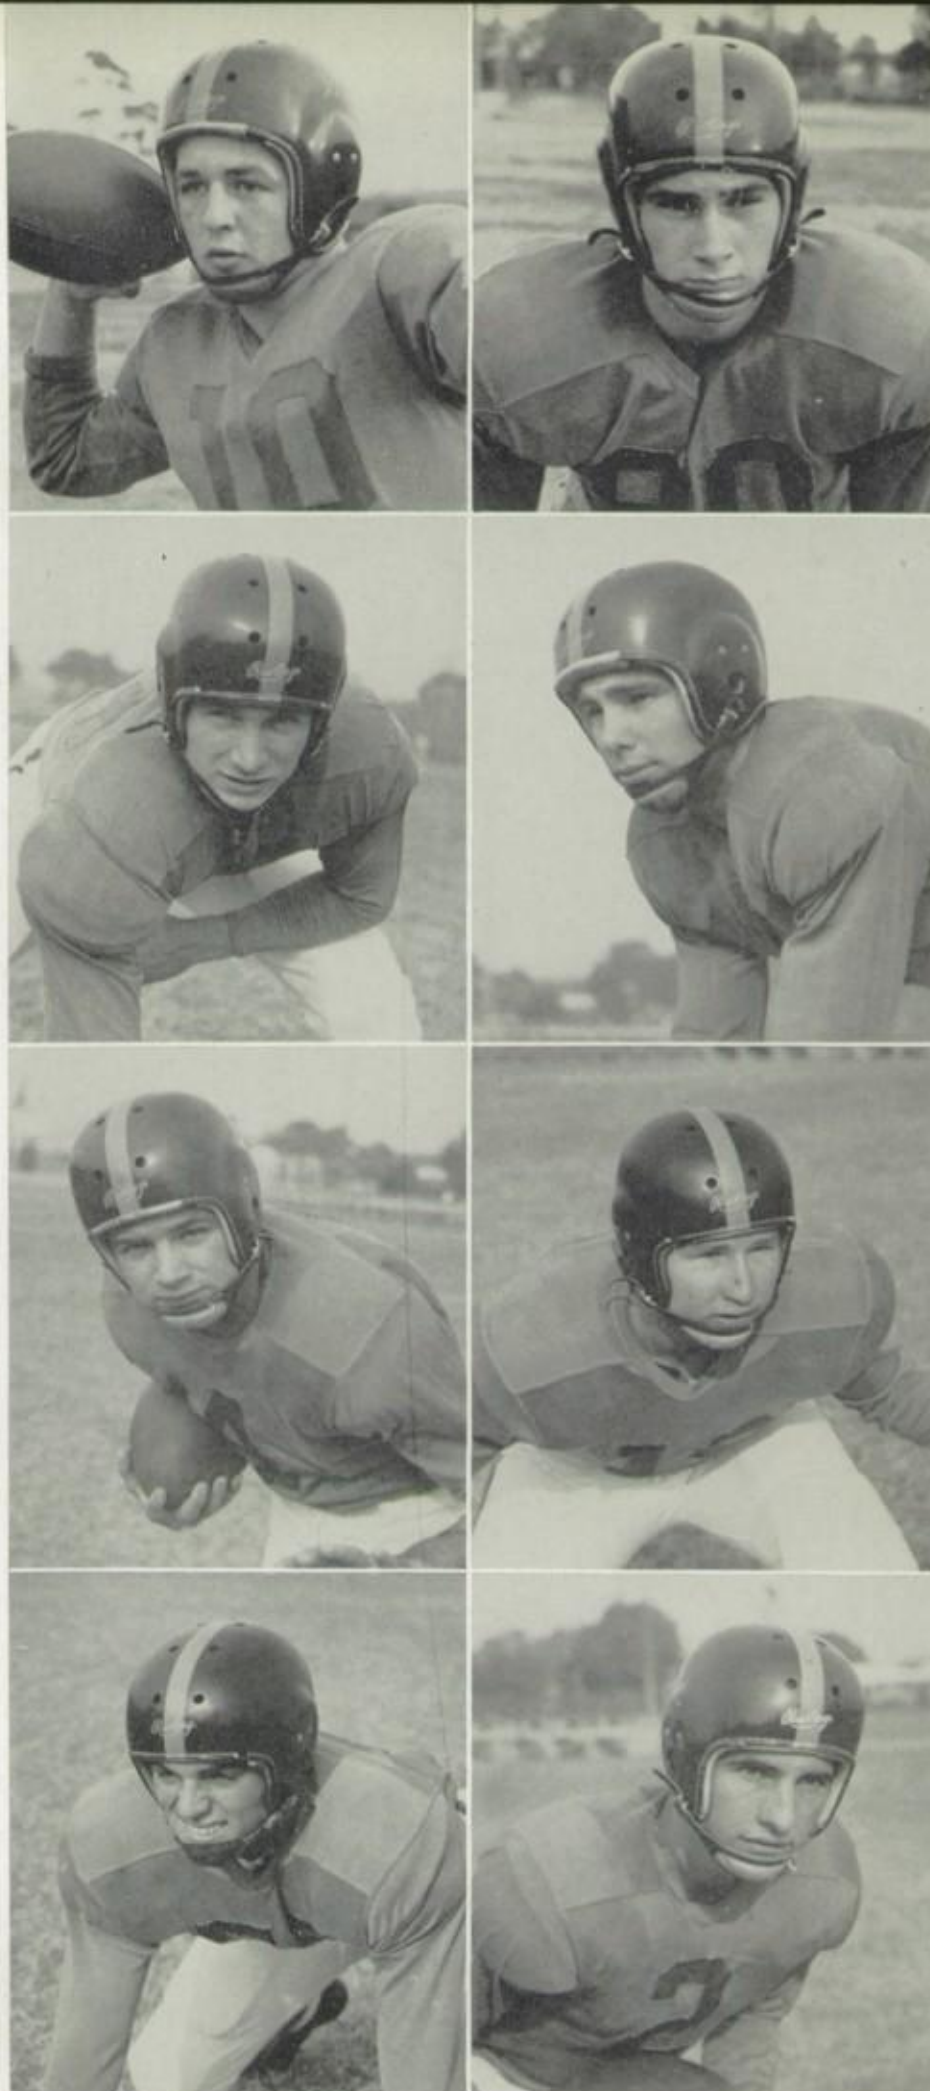

DAZZLING PERFORMERS

Your 1952 high-flying varsity football team had one of the most successful seasons in years when it soared to its second straight league championship. Coach Steve Bianchi did an excellent job in tutoring an outfit that had only seven returning lettermen.

Morris Adams, end; Don Truitt, halfback; and Ronnie Merrill, quarterback, sparked the Eagles in nabbing the Eastern League pennant. Adams scored seven touchdowns and kicked 12 conversions for top scorer and was honored by being placed on the first string All-City eleven. Truitt was one of the finest break-away runners in the metropolitan area and was tabbed to the third team All-City crew in addition to being named "Most Valuable Player" by his teammates. Merrill, one of the finest signal callers ever produced at Bell, threw seven touchdown aerals, completed 50 per cent of his passes, and played a sensational safety position on the defensive starting lineup. All three were picked to the All-Eastern League outfit.

Gary Rogers, halfback, played a terrific offensive game and with his driving power was chosen on the second team all-league outfit in addition to linemen, Ronnie Freeland and Pat Clements. Freeland, tackle; and Clements, guard, played excellent ball both defensively and offensively.

George Sattler presents quarterback Ronnie Merrill with the annual Hi-Y trophy for his team's gallant victory over South Gate, 26-0.

MASTERS WHO TAMED THE LEAGUE

BANNING—Coach Bianchi's Eagles opened the year with a 12-0 upset win over Banning. Ronnie Merrill paved the way with touchdown passes to All-City end, Morris Adams, and his side-kick, Bob Blum.

HAMILTON—Bell suffered its first defeat of the season when it lost to an under-rated Hamilton eleven, 14-6. Gary Rogers scored the Eagle's only tee dee on a 50 yard scamper up the middle.

WESTCHESTER—Don Truitt tallied from the seven yard stripe to give the Eagles a 6-0 victory over the Comets in the 20 minute Milk Bowl period.

SOUTH GATE—Merrill and Adams again combined talents to spark their team to a smashing 26-0 drubbing of the previously undefeated Ramblers. Brilliant Ron connected for 13 out of 20 passes and was chosen "Player of the Week" in city circles.

POLYTECHNIC—Bell cruised to its second straight lop-sided win by mauling the Mechanics, 33-6. Truitt averaged seven yards a crack in addition to scoring two six pointers.

HUNTINGTON PARK—The annual Homecoming game saw the Eagles drop a close one to their rivals, the Spartans, 8-7. Adams caught a 19 yard pass for the lone tally.

BELL GARDENS—Truitt had a field day against this tough C.I.F. eleven by scoring three times and averaging nine yards a try on 14 carries. Adams booted six out of seven conversions to make the final count 41-21.

BELMONT—Adams scored all of Bell's digits to spark the Eagles to a 13-7 championship victory over Belmont's undefeated Sentinels. The All-City wingman traveled 65 yards on a punt return and caught a seven yard tee dee toss from Merrill.

MANUAL ARTS—Bell's stern defensive line held the City football champions to a close 14-7 win. The Eagles statistically downed the Toilers but, like in all contests, breaks played a big part in the final outcome.

UPPER LEFT: Gary Rogers knifes through for one yard and Bell's initial touchdown against South Gate. UPPER RIGHT: Ronnie Merrill intercepts a Poly aerial and streaks for the goal line. Bell High's newly formed football band made a sparkling appearance at the Homecoming game marching on the field with their white pants, blue jackets, and blue overseas caps trimmed in gold. The members also performed for the P.T.A. Jam Session. Football band was conducted under the direction of Mr. William Hollenbeck.

Under the direction of Mrs. Lotene Morgan, the Drill Team performed in the Milk Bowl and at the Homecoming game.

Uniforms consisted of purple dresses trimmed in orange, reversible orange and purple jackets, and orange beanies. President was Marie Weiss.

Songleaders were: Betty Shoemaker, Gloria Severance, and Rosemary Verrell. Summer songleaders were: Beverly Stout, Betty Harris, and Roberta Demming.

Cheerleaders were: Bill Nazaroff, Stan Wolfard, and Jim Coughlin.

LITTLE MEN OF

Coach Larry Osburn's mighty Bee football squad combined hustle with the will-to-win and went on to nab two out of four league contests for a third spot in the final Eastern circuit standings.

The Eaglets were led by the shifty rushing ability of Jim Ruth, halfback and "Most Valuable Player," who averaged over eight yards a carry and tallied six touchdowns. Frank Sanserino, halfback, was another offensive standout in addition to full-

COURT EXCITEMENT

Coach Bud Naslund's varsity hoopsters breezed through a highly exciting season and nabbed fourth place on four victories in ten Eastern League starts. The Eagles were led by the high scoring talents of 6'4" center, Lathon Brewer, who compiled a total of 175 points, fourth highest in the league for the ten game schedule.

The campaign was marked by closely fought battles, including the first round tussle with Riis in which the Eagles were defeated 58-57 in the last second of play. Another was the second tilt with Poly in which Bell almost pulled the biggest upset of the year. The high fliers went down 70-66 to the league juggernauts.

In addition to Brewer, the quintet was loaded with talent including forward, George Sattler; guard, Bud Pritchard, who held the highest one game record of 26 markers against Riis; and forward Duane Cole, who graduated at mid-season with a 14.6 average a game.

ON THEIR TOES

Bell's dynamic Bee casabamen nabbed only two contests in ten league frays, but still had a fired-up quintet that was rated tops in team spirit and sportsmanship.

The first round tilt with Riis was the most exciting contest, as the Eaglets had to rally to nab an overtime contest. The battle had originally come to a close with the count knotted 45-45, but the Eaglets held the Vikings scoreless in the three minute overtime interim to go on and take the contest, 48-45.

Jim Wadnizak, forward, was high point man for the season with 89 points. He was followed by Dave Hinds with 74, Larry Barr with 52, and Lee Wells and Calvin Brown with 37 and 31 digits, respectively.

Coach Bob Bosanko's Cee and Dee fives scraped their way through the season giving the on-looking spectators plenty of thrills. The Cees were victorious in only two games, but the mighty Dees fought their way to a third spot by winning seven games and dropping only three.

The Cees were led by forward Kenny Carpenter who hit the basket for 69 points in ten contests. His biggest day was against Belmont when he rung up 15 markers to spark the Eaglets to a 32-29 victory. The first string consisted of Carpenter and Jim Honaker at forwards, Tom Moore at center, and Brad Hill and Bob Lehow at guards.

The dwarf-sized Dees had the finest record of all the Bell basketball teams in winning seven and losing three. Jerry Pepper's 16 digits against cross-town rival Huntington Park boosted Pepper's average to 7.9 for the campaign. The starting five was made up of Spike Lunn and Ronald Hales at forwards, Pepper at center, and Billy McCann and Bill Austin at guards.

With interlocked hands, Bell's Nate Brewer and Manual Arts' Garnette Brown jump for the ball in a non-league game. The Toilers, pre-season City Champions, socked the Eagles 72-42 on the Bell court in a major playoff tilt.

OOM-PUFF-PUFF

Although bolstered by a score of outstanding mercurymen, the Eagle track forces managed to cop only a few of the season's dual meets. The varsity aggregation tied for fourth with one victory, the Bees landed in the cellar with nary a win, while the Cee troupe gained fourth spot with two conquests.

Biggest headliner of Coach Larry Osburn's cinder squad was ace speed merchant, Fred Miller, who gained All-League laurels in the 180 low hurdles, 220 yard dash, and the high jump. Miller, who was defeated only once in the hurdles, broke the tape in the league race, in addition to taking a second in the high hop, and a third in the 220. Miller's clocking of 19.6 seconds in the lows, against South Gate, was the City's fastest of the year.

Miller's teammates, Stan Wolfard, Jerry Reed, and Kenny Goldstein also brought honor to their alma mater by placing in the league clash. Wolfard took fourth in the mile run, Reed placed fifth in the broad jump, while Goldstein blazed his way to a fifth in the 880.

The Bees were led by digit-producers, Doug Young, Jack Lemon, and Ken Smith, all of whom placed in the league meet.

Bob Garcia and Jerry Pepper sparked the dynamic midgets by winning blue ribbons in the campaign finale. Garcia flung the eight pound shot 44' 10 1/2" for league honors, while Pepper cleared the bar at 5'3" to cop the high jump.

ON THE ROAD

Coach Bob Bosanko and his hard working cross country squad found that the Eastern League outfits were a little too tough as they dropped every meet during the league campaign. The sophomore outfit was a little more fortunate in nabbing two out of four league encounters.

Top men on the varsity aggregation were Stan Wolfard and Eugene Holtz who placed in every meet. In the league finals at U.C.L.A., Wolfard nabbed ninth, while Holtz trotted in 19th. All trot-fests were held at East Los Angeles Junior College with the exception of the Polytechnic skirmish.

Big gun of the tenth grade outfit was Kenny Smith who is a fine prospect for the next couple of years.

DIAMOND SHINERS

Although a pre-season league favorite, the Eagle 1953 varsity baseball team met up with some unlucky breaks and committed numerous costly errors which forced them to take fourth spot in the final standings with a record of four wins against six setbacks.

Joe Trenary and Bud Pritchard again came through with championship showings in leading the Eagles through an unlucky, but thrilling, season. Trenary slammed the ball at a furious .467 average, driving in nineteen runs, while Pritchard walloped .387, led in extra base taps, and played a sensational game at his difficult shortstop position by not committing a single error throughout the league campaign.

Jim Ruth was the iron-man of the pitching staff by having a better than par 1.57 earned run average. In 40 innings, Ruth struck out 43 batters and gave up only nine earned tallies.

NINE TERRIFIC ACTS

Coach Frank Koski's mighty Bee baseball outfit, although undefeated in practice contests, went on to split eight league frays and take a well-earned third in the Eastern circuit.

Big stickmen of the varsity-understudies were Gary Myers and Bob Dunigan. Myers socked the apple at a .385 clip while Dunigan swatted .353 in eight league battles.

Bob Bilderback was tops in the pitching department with Jim Wadnizak doing an excellent job as relief hurler. Biggest clubbing feat of the season was when Jim Honaker slammed two home runs against South Gate, but both were in vain as the Eaglets went down to defeat, 6-5.

THEY'RE DARING, THEY'RE GRACEFUL

SEASON SCHEDULE

Capturing two out of three league meets, Coach Gordon "Bud" Naslund's gymnastic squad landed a second spot in the newly-formed Eastern circuit for 1953.

Headed by All-League tumbling expert and runner-up long horse specialist, Bill Nazaroff, the Eagles boasted a star-studded aggregation. Larry Barr, season high-point man and runner-up league free-exercisist, and Gary Conner, all-around performer, also were a big asset to the Bell staff.

Others sharing the limelight were Gerald Manker, Tom Tivnen, Bill Borwick, and Ronnie Crepeau.

Coach Robert Coleman's hustling tennis squad coasted through the season without much help from Lady Luck. The Eagles, although bolstered by the fine playing of Paul Stern, Jimmy Neil, Charles Bradley and Adolph De Blasio, managed to nab only two out of six league contests and one out of four non-league clashes.

Stern and Neil were terrific as singles men as both racketmen won almost every match in which they participated. De Blasio and Bradley were Bell's first doubles combination. Two other top netmen were Ken Wagoner and Clifford Hanan.
